>>> application deadline: Monday, Jan. 30, 2012 <<<

Attention, undergraduate journalism majors:

OHIO UNIVERSITY'S E.W. SCRIPPS SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM invites students to apply for STATEHOUSE NEWS BUREAU FELLOWSHIPS in Columbus, Ohio's capital (and largest) city. The fellowships are made possible in part with the generous support of the SCRIPPS HOWARD FOUNDATION.

Fellows earn course-credit for public-affairs reporting. Students are based at THE COLUMBUS DISPATCH or other mass-media organizations with a presence at Ohio's Statehouse. Students wishing to be considered for spring quarter 2012 should send:

- an application letter, including full contact details
- up-to-date résumé
- two letters of recommendation, and
- three- to five clips or other examples of published or broadcast reporting, to:

Thomas Suddes, Ph.D.
E.W. Scripps School of Journalism
Sing Tao Center 108
Athens, Ohio 45701-2979

Important:

- Applicants enrolled at Ohio University must submit a DARS report.
- Other applicants must arrange for their colleges to send a transcript.

U.S. Mail submissions preferred, but applications also accepted at suddes@ohio.edu
